Thoſe Gentlemen with this [*] Mark were not of the Houſe laſt Year.

[The Towns are in the Order they ſtand in the laſt Tax-Act.]

Thurſday laſt His Excellency the Governor was pleaſed to make the following SPEECH to both Houſes, viz.

Gentlemen of the Council, and
Gentlemen of the Houſe of Repreſentatives,

AT the opening this Seſſion I have nothing from the immediate Command of His Majeſty, to lay before you. I therefore cannot employ the preſent Opportunity better than by recommending to you to endeavour to reſtore to this General Court the mutual Confidence and Unanimity which prevailed in it, until they were interrupted by the late popular Uneaſineſs. And I muſt at the ſame Time aſſure you that I ſhall heartily concur with you in all Meaſures which ſhall be conducive to ſo ſalutary an End.

I do not however mean to decline the full Exerciſe of the conſtitutional Powers with which I am veſted: They are derived from the ſame Fountain with your own Privileges, and therefore I truſt that the free Uſe of them can never give juſt cauſe of Offence. But as I deſire to temper my Authority with all poſſible Moderation, I ſhall be obliged to you for every Opportunity you ſhall give me to make evident this Diſpoſition.

The Buſineſs of this Seſſion is generally ſhort; and the Seaſon of the Year requires that it ſhould be ſo. You muſt have obſerved how very expenſive unneceſſary Diſputation is, & therefore I hope you will avoid it; that the Public Buſineſs may be done with all proper Diſpatch, and you may return to your homes as ſoon as may be.

Fra. Bernard.

Verres' Speech Pa 658.

HARK'ee my Lads! I now design,
On former Follies to refine;
My old Friend G——e out of Place,
And dear Oppreſſion in Diſgrace;
Stanch to the Cauſe; I'll bring alone,
A World of Malice all my own.
I charge you, that ye all endeavour,
By truckling Lads! to gain my Favour;
For if my Nod your Conduct guide,
And ſhould my ſov'reign Will decide;
Tho' wrong and Folly ſhould prevail,
If my high Dictate turn the Scale;
You'll ſurely gain my Approbation,
Tho' Thouſands grumble with Vexation.
Miſtake me not, that I decline,
The Exerciſe of Right divine,
Tho' you my Wiſhes ſhould fulfill,
I mean to be a Verres ſtill.
Therefore beware to give Offence,
I ſhall not brook your Inſolence;
Pay due Submiſſion to my Station,
You'll find me then, all Moderation;
But Faith! I'll make you feel at Leiſure,
What 'tis to merit my Diſpleaſure.
In ſhort my Lads! 'tis my Advice,
To finiſh Buſineſs in a trice;
No long Debates, but ſtrait purſue,
And do, as I would have you do;
Diſpatch will ſave a World of Coſt,
And ſee you to't no Money's loſt!
For I muſt have a handſome Share,
In Conſcience then, you ought to ſpare;
No Diſputation here, 'tis Treaſon,
Make haſte, and get ye Home in Seaſon.

Meſſieurs EDES & GILL,

Pleaſe to inſert the following

COPY of Inſtructions voted by the Town of Worceſter, at the Adjournment at May Meeting 1767.

To Mr. JOSHUA BIGELOW,

SIR,

AS we have devolv'd on you the important Truſt of Repreſenting us at the Great and General Court the Year enſuing, we your Conſtituents therefore think it our Duty and Intereſt to give you the following Inſtructions relative to ſome of your Conduct in ſaid Truſt, viz.

Firſt, That you uſe your Influence to maintain and continue that Harmony & Good-will between Great-Britain and this Province, as may be moſt conducive to the Proſperity of each, by a ſteady and firm Attachment to Engliſh Liberty and the Charter Rights of this Province; and that you willingly ſuffer no Innovations, either through Pretext of Precedency or any other Way whatſoever; and if you find any Incroachments on our Charter Rights, that you uſe your utmoſt Abilities to obtain a conſtitutional Redreſs.

Secondly, That you uſe your Influence to obtain a Law to put an End to that unchriſtian and impolitick Practice of making Slaves of the human Species in this Province; and that you give your Vote for none to ſerve in his Majeſty's Council, who you may have Reaſon to think will uſe their Influence againſt ſuch a Law, or that ſuſtain any Office incompatible with ſuch Truſt; and in ſuch Choice prefer ſuch Gentlemen (and ſuch only) who have diſtinguiſhed themſelves in the Defence of our Liberty.

Thirdly, That you uſe your Influence that the Fee Table of this Province be eſtabliſh'd more agreable to the Rules of Juſtice; ſet not to the Sheriff's Fees, &c. double as much Pay as the Service may be done for (and in general is by the Deputy Sheriffs) neither oblige Jurymen, &c. &c. to do Service at the Expence of their own private Eſtates, or be ſubjected to large Fines or Penalties, but ſubject all or none at all, by Penalties, and appoint ſo much Fees and no more, as may be agreable to each Service; and that you obſerve this Rule in granting Pay for contingent and occaſional Charges.

Fourthly, That you uſe your Endeavour to relieve the People of this Province from the great Burden of ſupporting ſo many Latin Grammar Schools, whereby they are prevented from attaining ſuch a Degree of Engliſh Learning as is neceſſary to retain the Freedom of any State.

Fifthly, That you make diligent Inquiry into the Cauſe of ſuch a general Neglect of the Militia of this Province, and endeavour a Redreſs of ſuch Grievance, without which we apprehend in Time we may be made an eaſy Prey of by the Enemies of Great-Britain.

6thly, Take ſpecial Care of the Liberty of the PRESS.

And Sir, We hope and truſt that in all Matters that may come before you, you will have a ſingle Eye to the Publick Good, have a watchful Eye over thoſe who are ſeeking the Ruin of this Province, and endeavour to make this Province reciprocally happy with our Mother Country.

Atteſt. JOHN CHANDLER, Town-Clerk.

Imported in the Ship Diſpatch, Nathaniel Phillips Maſter, from Liverpool, and to be ſold by Benjamin & Edward Davis, at their Store the South Side of the Town-Dock,

James McMaſter, begs Leave to inform his Cuſtomers and others, that he has lately Removed from the Store next Mr. Dupee's Inſtrument Maker, to Treat's Wharff, where he has to diſpoſe of, A great Variety of Scotch and Engliſh Goods, ſuitable for the Seaſon.—Thoſe who are pleaſed to favor him with their Cuſtom, may depend on being ſerved at the loweſt Advance.

BOSTON, June 1.

We hear that the Mineral Spring at Newtown is now ready for Uſe, the neceſſary Accommodations being juſt compleated.

Friday laſt arrived here Capt. Hunter from London, Capt. Phillips from Liverpool, and Capt. Dunn from Glaſgow; by the former we have Papers to the 17th of April, which contain no News. By Letters from London bro't by Capt. Hunter, we learn, That nothing material has happened in Relation to this Province, only that there is a ſtrange Temper prevailing both in the Houſe and out of it, that makes it very difficult for the Miniſtry to carry Things quietly in Favour of America—— That there are ſome People on this Side the Water that repreſent the Provinces in a very bad Light, and inſinuate as if they were fomenting a new Congreſs, in Order, in an indecent Manner, to make Repreſentations Home, on which one of the Agents for the Colonies was ſent for by Lord SHELBURNE, to know if he had any freſh Advices, or had heard of any Application; upon which he aſſured his Lordſhip to the contrary, and gave it as his Opinion, that it was raiſed by the Enemies of America—— That the Letter-writer adviſes to be particular cautious in our Conduct, that we may give no Advantage to thoſe who watch for our halting—— That there is Reaſon to believe Com. Palliſer's Inſtructions and Behavior towards the Colonies will be more favorable than formerly—— And that great Pains have been taken from hence to prevent the Royal Approbation of the Clauſe of Indemnity tacked to the late Act of Compenſation to the Sufferers, but they are like to prove ineffectual.

Laſt Saturday Morning died at Lynn, after a few Days Illneſs, aged 39, NATHANIEL HENCHMAN, Eſq; Phyſician, and one of his Majeſty's Juſtices of Peace in the County of Eſſex, a Gentleman whoſe ſuperior Abilities render'd him not only very uſeful to Mankind, but greatly endear'd him to all his Friends in Life, and univerſally lamented Death: His Remains are to be inter'd To-Morrow.

☞ Several Pieces relative to the Times are receiv'd; but on account of obliging our advertizing Cuſtomers, we poſtpone them.
